LOCAL & GENERAL NEWS.

The skating rink will be open to-night for juveniles.

Our Chinese residents are already preparing for the celebration of their New Year.

HERE it is the 4th day of February, and no statement of the census is ready.

THE wreck of the schooner Marion was sold at auction yesterday by Mr. Adams for $50.

REGULAR monthly concert at the Bethel Union Church this evening at 7.30. Subject, "China."

THE Honolulu Rifles did not drill last evening, but held their regular meeting. One new member was elected.

THE annual election of officers of Engine Co. No. 2, for the ensuing term, will be held this evening at 7.30 o'clock at their hall.

MR. J. H. Reist, book-keeper for Mr. Thos. G. Thrum, has been appointed to a clerkship in the Interior Department.

THIS evening, at Fort Street Church, the monthly concert of prayer will be held. The subject will be "Home Missions."

FUNDS are being raised for the completion of the second tower to the Kaunakapili church. Already about $1,000 has been collected.

MR. J. E. Wiseman, the well-known business agent, has the letting of the offices and rooms over W. G. Irwin and Co.'s new building.

THE condition of Rev. Dr. Damon is still about the same. No signs of improvement. He slept comparatively well through the night.

THE regular meeting of the trustees of the Honolulu Library and Reading Room Association will be held at the Library Hall on Thursday evening at 7.30 o'clock.

A NATIVE named Moku was fined $50 this morning for malicious injury, by stopping water on land at Kalihi owned by Mrs. Emma Beckley, librarian.

"How to Make a Match," and "The Next Congress," on fourth page.

THERE was no meeting of the Stock and Bond Exchange this morning.

MESSRS. Freeth and Peacock have some of that excellent Key brand of gin for sale in quantities to suit.

DR. S. Ernest Craddock's office is at 104 Fort street, opposite Benson, Smith & Co.'s store.

S. B. STODDARD, of Waihee, Maui, has been declared bankrupt on his own petition. Proof of claims will be heard Thursday, February 19th.

THERE was a crusty old croaker, Who hated the sight of a joker;
But a funny news item Did with laughter excite him,
Till he got black in face as a stoker.

MESSRS. Lyons & Levey will hold their regular cash sale to-morrow morning at 10 o'clock. Amongst other things they will sell Madeira willow ware furniture and two fine saddle horses.

MR. D. D. Baldwin, inspector general of schools, is at present visiting the different schools in Honolulu. Yesterday and this morning he has been inspecting the Fort Street school.

THE brigantine Consuelo left for San Francisco this afternoon. Capt. Cousins says, he will try and beat his last trip of ten days. A T. Baker, the horse doctor, was a passenger by her.

THE premises lately occupied by the Survey Department in the Government building, will be used as a Government law library. A large vault is also to be built for Court records, etc.

HIS Majesty the King has been pleased to grant letters patent of denization to Dr. James Brodie, Veterinary Surgeon, and Dr. Rolando Kuehu, Government physician at Lahaina, Maui.

WITH regard to the race between the schooners Emma and the Nettie Merrill, Capt. Brownell, of the latter vessel, states that she was very deeply laden with sugar, while the Emma scarcely had anything in her.

THE question has been asked, "Why are there not more lady reporters?" Well, we suppose it's because they would tell all they knew before the paper came out, and then no one would want to read it.

ON Friday last we had an account of a little episode which took place in the Police Court, in which the name of Mrs. Roe was mentioned. It should have been Mrs. Elsen. We were wrongfully informed at the Police Court.

YESTERDAY afternoon about 5 o'clock, two natives were riding on horseback up Nuuanu Valley, in a badly intoxicated condition. One of them fell from his horse two or three times. They managed to reach home without accident.

By an oversight our report of the Kerguelen's arrival read as if Yokohama were somewhere else than in Japan. Of course such a good chance could not be lost by our morning contemporary, but it knows better than to say our shipping reporter is an "ex-teacher of geography."

IN the Police Court this morning J. W. Luning was charged with libel by inserting a letter in yesterday's Advertiser. Messrs. Smith & Thurston appeared for the prosecution, and Mr. John Russell for the defence. By request of defendant's counsel the case was remanded until Monday.

LAST evening, His Majesty the King sent the Royal Hawaiian Band to serenade Prof. Wayland at the residence of Hon. S. G. Wilder, Judd street. An excellent programme was given by Bandmaster Berger, including many native airs. A large number of people were outside Mr. Wilder's beautiful residence listening to the charming music.

A MEETING of the jury appointed to assess damages to property by the proposed widening of Fort and Hotel streets, will be held in the office of Godfrey Rhodes, on Kaunakapili street, on Friday next at 1 o'clock, p. m., when those interested are requested to present their claims.

THE sale of the household furniture of the late Henry May this morning by Mr. Adams was largely attended, the fair sex turning out in good numbers. The sale realized the splendid sum of $2,382.

THE Hawaiian Carriage Manufacturing Co. have just been overhauling and repainting Pacific Hose Co.'s wagon. The reel is painted a deep carmine, ornamented with gold and red. The running cart is a lighter shade of carmine, striped with gold, with an edge of deep chrome green. The lettering is in gold with four shades of green. It is a magnificent piece of work, and reflects great credit on the Company's painter, Mr. George Young.

THERE was a large crowd in attendance at the Police Court this morning. Three drunks had to pay $6, and another, a haole, was sent over the reef for seven days. Kailili, for assault and battery on Long Tang, was sent to prison for six days, and pay costs. Maui Michel, for violating express rules by charging excessive fare, was fined $3 with $3.75 costs. H. Luning, charged with being a common nuisance by keeping a house of prostitution, and maintaining a noisy house, was remanded until the 5th. Jacob Kamika and Wm. Moore, for having opium in possession, were remanded until the 6th.

LAST evening, Mr. John Lucas, son of our respected citizen, Mr. George Lucas, was united in marriage to Miss Eliza Foster, of Kamalo, Molokai. The ceremony was performed by the Right Rev. the Bishop of Oahu, at the residence of the bridegroom's parents, Kukui Place. The parlors were most richly decorated with flowers and evergreens, and the happy couple stood underneath a handsome floral marriage bell. After the ceremony a reception was held, at which a large number of invited guests tendered their congratulations. The presents were most numerous and costly, and included a beautiful set of silver knives, forks and spoons from the employees of the Honolulu Planing Mills. An elegant supper was served, followed by dancing, which was kept up until 1 o'clock. Long life and happiness to the newly-married couple.

YESTERDAY afternoon, while the steamer Planter was towing the British bark Banca out to sea, the line parted when near the lighthouse, but the vessel was fortunately saved from going on the reef.

THE notice of the Superintendent of the Water Works recently issued states that irrigation will be limited to four hours per day, from 6 to 8 a. m. and from 4 to 6 p. m. Some people are not obeying this notice and we should advise them to do so, or they will lose their water.

An adjourned meeting of the Star Mill Co. was held this morning at the office of Messrs. W. G. Irwin & Co., when the following gentlemen were elected officers for the ensuing year:—President, W. R. Castle; Vice-President, J. B. Atherton; Secretary and Treasurer, W. G. Irwin; Auditor, John H. Paty.

It will be remembered that at the last meeting of the Privy Council, a charter was granted, among others, to the Union Feed Company. The stockholders have had a meeting, accepted the Charter of Incorporation and elected the following officers:—President, H. R. Macfarlane; Vice-President, Bruce Cartwright; Treasurer, F. W. Macfarlane; Secretary, W. S. Hanks; Auditor, Bruce Cartwright; Directors, A. J. Cartwright, John H. Paty and Geo. W. Macfarlane.

Macneale & Urban Safes!

Honolulu, Jan. 11, 1885.

C. O. BERGER, Esq.,

Agent Macneale & Urban Safes.

DEAR SIR,

It is with great pleasure that I add my testimony to the Fire-Proof qualities of your Safes.

I had a small single door Macneale & Urban Safe in last night's terrible fire, and, on opening the same this morning found its contents—consisting of books, papers, and money to the amount of $1040—IN PERFECT CONDITION.

I am so well satisfied with the result that I want another No. 3 Safe at once.

Yours truly,

GEO. M. RAUPP,
